

WNTC To Airwave Home Ball Games

Campus Station WNTC resumed its full broadcasting schedule beginning Monday, March 21, with the reopening of its evening programs from eight to eleven. These broadcasts are in addition to the "Morning Bandstand" program that is presently on the air from seven-thirty to nine-thirty. The evening schedule is broadcasted Mondays through Fridays while the morning program is on the air Mondays through Saturdays.

The evening shows consist of popular and classcial music, plays, sports, news and other interesting topics. Each week there will be broadcasts of special interest such as a Polygon Club quiz program and name band shows. A weekly program schedule will be released covering all broadcasts.

The announcers of the request programs would appreciate requests from the radio listeners. Listeners are asked not to phone in but a postal card request may be sent to station WNTC.

In accordance with WNTC's policy of broadcasting sports events of both Clarkson and State Teachers' Colleges, it has been announced by Station Manager, Herman Steinborn, that all home baseball games of Clarkson will be carried over WNTC. It was also announced that State Teachers' games will be on the air this spring, provided a baseball team is organized.

Th feollowing Clarkson baseball games will be broadcast: April 24, Saint Michael; April 30, Champ-lain; May 6, Sampson; May 13, Norwich; May 16, Syracuse; May 22, Ithaca; May 28, Cortland. These seven games will be sponsored by McManus' Restaurant and Bar.

Glee Club, Quartet Schedule First Concert

The Glee Club and Male Quartet of Clarkson College, under the direction of Mr. Robert John McGill, will present their first public concert in Potsdam on April 26th at 8:15 p. m. in the Civic Center.

The quartet has made various public appearances including the recent dinner meeting of the Potsdam Fish and Game Club. The Glee Club appeared on the Clarkson Inauguration program last fall besides presenting a Christmas program over WNTC.

Featured as soloists in the Glee Club are John Stets and Carmen Bellavia, tenors and Preston Ough, baritone. The quartet consists of Stets, Ough, Gerald Wightman and Alan Sparks.

Mr. McGill, a member of the English department at Clarkson, graduated from the Crane School of Music of P.S.T.C. He also graduated from St. Lawrence with his masters degree in education.
